I want to thank all those who have stood by me, prayed for me and delivered food to my family. Without your support and God’s support I could not have endured this ordeal so well. Thank you all so very much and may God bless you all! I will be cured and will live a long life! George M. Stilphen”

HELP BID FAREWELL TO OUR GRADUATES...In the hallway outside of the youth room, there are laundry hampers for each high school graduate. As our gift to them, we all have the opportunity between now and Sunday, August 2nd, to drop off items for them to take to college. Be creative, and shower them with love! Below is a suggested list of items that college students love, for all different kinds of budgets (but items shouldn’t be limited to this list):

- Pens, pencils, paper, notebook, index cards, highlighters, desk accessories, microwaveable food/snacks, gift cards/money, laundry detergent, fabric softener, rolls of quarters, toiletries, address book, photo album, extra long sheets, air freshener, 3m strips, something homemade, any “pieces of home,” quick recipes, first aid kit, devotional, flash drive, iron, dvds/cds, alarm clock, extension cord/surge protector, stamps, stationery, personalized items, etc.

WE’RE GOING TUBING!

If you’re between the ages 21 and 35, come join us for our first Young Adult Ministries event of the summer! We will be going to Zaloo’s Canoes in Jefferson, NC for a day of fun and fellowship on July 12th. The cost per person is $11. Meet at the LUMC picnic shelter at 11am. Bring your swimwear, towel, and a snack. If you would like to come along, please complete the information below and place it in Emily’s box. YOUNG ADULTS- Go like us on Facebook!
If you're a current college student or are in your 20/30s, you're a part of what we now call, "Bridge." The "young adult" age is proven over and over to be the most awkward and forgotten age, even in the church. So our goal is to bridge the gap in the church and complete our whole body of Christ as one solid unit, giving these folks a firm and active place to grow together. Many young adults struggle to find their place in the church; therefore, we are working to create one of their own! For more information on how to get plugged into this group, go like this page! https://www.facebook.com/bridgelumc or contact Emily Roach at catalystyouthmin@gmail.com.

THE OLD UPRIGHT PIANO IN ASBURY HALL can be yours just for the asking! A piano has been donated to the church that will replace the one in Asbury. If you are interested, please contact Debby Trivett at the church. Details available upon re-
