A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR PAUL

We are blessed to be part of a growing church family. Since we completed the sanctuary renovation in the summer of 2023, we've welcomed 175 new members and celebrated 62 baptisms! But growth is about more than the number of church members or Sunday morning worship attendance. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to continually grow in our love for God and for our neighbors. We grow individually through daily habits of scripture reading and prayer. And we grow in love together by participating in one of our small groups outside of worship. You can find our full list of small groups on page 3. This September, find your place to belong in at least one of our small groups and be transformed by God's grace through spiritual growth, mutual care, and joyful service.

A Family for All

We extend our Christian sympathy and prayers to the family of Skip Morris, who passed away on August 14th.

On August 23rd, we celebrated the baptisms of Banks Bruce and Ben Crowley and welcomed new members Duncan Bruce, Anna Middleton, Ben Crowley, Whitney Crowley, and Nancy Huneycutt.
