A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR PAUL

One of the blessings of winter weather is that it gives us an opportunity to slow down. The sound of kids sledding and laughing outside makes us wonder, have we lost our joy? Somewhere along the way, most of us get distracted by the phones buzzing in our pockets, by busy calendars and full work schedules, by things we can't control and by expectations we can't live up to. These distractions have a way of crowding out all the joy in your life. Our February sermon series, "Undistracted," based on the book by Bob Goff, is a wake up call, designed to help you rediscover joy by recapturing your life's purpose. You were created to love God and love others as yourself. What is distracting you from that purpose? God's gift of joy is waiting for you right here, right now. Let's rediscover it together.

A Family for All

We celebrate with Raffi and Laura Granados who were married on January 10th.

On January 11th, Baptism of the Lord Sunday, we welcomed Andy and Heather Johnson into our church family, and baptized their four children Jase, Abbie, Jo, and Callie.

On January 18th, we welcomed Canon and Kait Brodar into our church family and baptized Caroline and Marianna Brodar and Addie Maroni.
